Sorry, I did not hear back last week. I was out of the office and completely out of touch Friday. Trying this morning.

Hi Anthony,

Question: were you able to talk with Eric Chapman about who will attend? I heard from Sherry this morning that Kristin and Dee told her it was a technical meeting and that no one from the council would be in attendance. If that's the case, we need to regroup. We already talk to Kristin and Dee on a weekly basis. That's currently not getting us anywhere. Thanks.

Margaret

All: I attached some items I think may be key to a successful consultation at Lac du Flambeau next week. I expect you are already ready to engage with most of the items listed, but might be overburdened with detail. I suggest you head north prepared to concisely and constructively address these topics. Not all may come up, but it looks like most will. Thanks for your time today.
